

Personal Agenda Activity

Provide the group with a large collection of Lego building blocks. Give them the collective task to build a wall in the middle of the table. Give them each a personal agenda. They should keep this agenda to themselves.

Debrief: find out if they can guess the other agendas. How did secret agendas affect the collective activity? What emotions were aroused by this activity? How could this translate into a real meeting?

Personal Agendas (cut out)

---

Build the wall as high as possible.

---

Build the wall as long as possible.

---

Make windows in the wall.

---

Do not allow red and yellow bricks to touch in the wall.

---

Make the top of the wall level.

---

Make the wall turn a corner.

---

Do not allow blue and green bricks to touch in the wall.

---

Do not allow three bricks of the same colour to touch in the wall.

---

Collect all the gold bricks.

---

Copy what the person opposite you is doing.

---