

Meeting No.5 – Implementing Plans

Today you will be implementing your plans that you devised in the last meeting.

Your mission is to make a scale model of Payap university and complete the goals you set for your team.

There will be a short debriefing session at the end of today's construction project to measure your plans and goals against your actual output.